PRE-WAR
BLUES

World Class
Collection!

Auction closes Thursday, October 1, 2026 at 7:00 p.m. PT

Arhoolie! The Chris Strachwitz Pre-War Blues 78's Auction! (Last one!)

Chris Strachwitz was one of THE Pioneer Collectors of Vintage Rural American Music! He started collecting Blues records in the South in 1958! He owned the Arhoolie Label and recorded GREAT BLUES MUSIC and GREAT MUSIC OF ALL KINDS. Chris passed away in May of 2023 at 91 years of age.

I purchased his entire personal collection of just under 50,000 78's last November and this is my last auction of his Pre-War Blues gems.

There are some extremely rare records here along with some of the more "common" but SUPER CLEAN 78's which I just don't see out there any more. Plus, some of the E+ gems are Old Store Stock. These records are scarcer AND getting more expensive all the time ... IF they even come up for sale.

Since this is the end of the Strachwitz collection, this is your chance to grab some of the titles ... NOW! It may be the last time you see them so pristine for a while ... IF ever again!

So go for broke and ask for a CALL BACK for any records you just can't live without! Good luck to all!

Chris also had a World Class collection of Ethnic, Cajun and Mexican 78's as well as some "off-condition" Blues, Gospel, Jug Band and Post War Country 78's.

Check my weekly eBay listings for these records. My eBay user-name is: johntefteller

Bukka White Vocalion 78’s are among the very best Blues of the late 1930’s. They are not common, but also not insanely rare and expensive.

My candidate for his very BEST release on OKEH and some prefer it as the best of his records in this period. TOUGH to find in clean shape.
